

Let us find you the perfect candidate

Interim Manager/Special Needs & Inclusion Specialist

Laurie has worked at a senior level in both Secondary and Primary settings. He has a diploma in Special Needs and Inclusion which he is currently studying at Masters level. Starting as a teacher of Physical Education, Laurie progressed to Head of Department and Head of Year. He then he set up and ran Learning Support Units/Social Inclusion Centres in three Inner City mainstream schools and became the Headteacher of a SEBD school in Staffordshire.

Laurie has achieved outstanding success in a number of interim management roles as Headteacher, Associate Headteacher and Deputy Head in private sector and mainstream schools and in SEBD schools. With extensive expertise of the day-to-day running of schools, his specialisms include behaviour for learning, staff training, curriculum development, personalisation, re-integration and policy development

Laurie is available to work full time and would consider working in Mainstream (particularly focusing on Inclusion), Pupil Referral or Special Schools on an interim or permanent basis.

070/09/05/LF

Special Education/School Improvement Specialist

Paul is a retired head teacher with more than 30 years' experience in Special Education in both Mainstream (including Sixth Form) and Special Schools. He has been an adviser for SEN and Inclusion with a large Local Authority and successfully led a community Special School for 12 years. His work has been predominantly with children with learning difficulties, many of whom also had severe emotional and behavioural difficulties.

Recently Paul led his school through a successful inspection: his leadership was described as 'very good' and 'innovative'. He raised attainment significantly as reflected in CVA data. While working as a contact adviser for eight Special Schools, Paul enabled one to move out of a failing category. He is a trained School Improvement Partner, experienced in analysing LA data and supporting schools through self-evaluation.

Paul is available for full-time or part-time work from September 2009.

073/09/06/PA

School Improvement/Inclusion & PSHE Specialist

John is an independent consultant with experience as a Secondary Deputy Headteacher and LA Primary and Secondary advisor. He has worked in training and development in the Education, Health and Social Care sectors, and recently managed a research project into Speaking and Listening and Creativity in Key Stage 3, using students as experts.

John has led English and Drama departments and he has been a Key Stage 3 Manager and Deputy in a high-performing rural comprehensive school. He has the NPQH, a Diploma in Education Management and extensive experience of governance and community participation. With particular skills in Inclusion and PSHE, John has co-ordinated Raising Achievement projects. Throughout his career John has combined his understanding of teaching and learning with experience of organisational development.

John is available part-time and can be flexible to meet requirements.

039/09/02/JF

This is just a small selection of candidates available for work.
For further information, email or call us straight away using the contact details below

call us on: 020 8253 8247

email: leadership@creativeeducation.co.uk

or visit our website: www.creativeeducation.co.uk/leadership